

RED RISING

The Panthers earned the first division title in franchise history after posting 94 points with a 38-26-18 record in 2011-12 – the team's most points since totaling 98 points in 1999-2000 (43-27-6-6). In their first playoff appearance since 2000, the Panthers fell to the eventual Eastern Conference Champion New Jersey Devils in double overtime of Game 7 of their Eastern Conference quarterfinal series and set records for home playoff game attendance.

In addition to the team's recent success, the Panthers have a bright future highlighted by numerous top-ranked prospects. Florida is listed No. 1 among all NHL teams for best prospects by Hockey's Future and has been in the Top 4 organizations for the last four bi-annual rankings. Eight Florida Panthers made their NHL debuts this season. Jonathan Huberdeau, Drew Shore and Nick Bjugstad along with D Mike Caruso, F Quinton Howden, D Alex Petrovic, F Jon Rheault and F Eric Selleck all played their first NHL games this season. Jonathan Huberdeau earned NHL Rookie of the Year honors. Get your future stars jerseys now as the young Panthers are sure to make their mark.
